

Lady Riders By Bob Nadeau

Just in case you haven't noticed and if you haven't, you need your eyes checked, there are a lot of women riding their own motorcycles. Now from my point of view I think this is great. When I see a woman on her own bike she looks sexy and tough. I talked to David and Tammy, your friendly neighborhood Alabama editors. They thought it was a good idea to start recognizing lady riders on a grand scale. So here we go.

As I was talking and taking pictures of ladies riding their own bikes, I asked the question, "Why?" and got basically the same answers. The feeling of independence, being able to ride without waiting for some guy (husband, boy friend, etc.) to take you.

Freedom – the wonderful feeling of freedom with the open air all around you and the power of controlling the beast under you and knowing you are one of a small group of women who can say they ride a motorcycle and yes, we know we look sexy and tough and we love it.

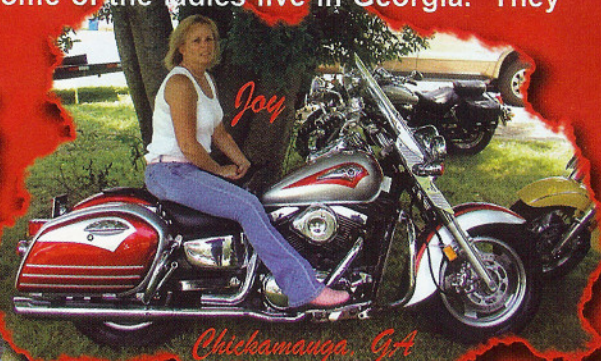

Now that we know basically why they ride, let me show you some of the women I've met. All these ladies own and ride their own motorcycles. Don't get upset now, but some of the ladies live in Georgia. They live right over the line, but I met them riding in Alabama so that makes it all right.

Hey, what am I saying? I live in Georgia, so of course it's all right.
