Story by Bob Nadeau ~ Pictures by Brenda

Well, I don't know if you remember, but a few months ago we did an article about Lady Riders. One of the Ladies rides a Honda Gold Wing Trike and brings her dog, Gizmo with her a lot. Now would you believe that Gizmo wanted his own bike?

And, of course, what did Brenda and George do? Yeah, you guessed it. They bought Gizmo his own motorcycle.

It's a Fat Dog Chopper. I won't say that Gizmo is a Ham, but he sure does like to get his picture taken. And that's just what Brenda did. She took a bunch of pictures and here are some of them.

Life is short.
Have fun.
